who cannot shop during the day because the men are either at work or play, deserve at least one evening. They have it through the store being open Saturday till 9. This store's duty is to serve all with equal convenience and courtesy. We want the store service to be complete. The Saturday night shopping-hours help towards making it so. And each member of the store staff on duty Saturday evening is rewarded for that duty.

For nine dollars, we will make from woolen bought in the store. a suit of any one of several attractive new styles.

For six dollars, we will make a coat; for $1.25, a skirt.

The only condition attached to the offer is the reasonable one that the fabric shall bought here and that where linings or special trimmings are required they shall be furnished and from the store's stocks.

Whichever article or style is chosen, the store guarantees that its fit and finish will be satisfactory.

Measurements are taken when purchase is made and style chosen. As soon as cutting and basting is finished, a fitting will be given. Thus no minor defects in fit will be allowed to occur.

The new styles are very attractive-and so varied that personal likes are easily met.

Women of unusual figure, women who wish to save much of the time usually spent with a tailor, women who enjoy wearing a suit made especially to their figure and fancy,—this is their opportunity.

Rug value means strength beauty & price.

Rugs, in the special lot that came from folks who had move, have all the elements of value; of unusual value.

They are firm of weave and woven from yarn that is staunch and strong. They will wear long and well. They are beautiful both in pattern and color. Use of right color makes a rug fit into its surroundings. Patterns must be in harmony with furniture and use to which room is put. These rugs offer patterns for every room; colors for every decorative plan.

Their prices are unusual: a dollar buys more than a dollar usually can. That is because they came from progressive folks who would rather sell merchandise cheap than bother with moving if to a big new store.
